COSTUME BUFF CHIFFON AND LACE

Buff chiffon is the chief material used in this very fetching costume, which suggests in its fringed tunic the days of the early Greeks, in its Venise lace bodice trimmings the splendor of the Doges and in its accompanying cap the demure maidens of a simpler time.

The entire robe is built upon a slip of dark brown satin which deepens the tone of the buff and repeats the shade of the velvet girdle, the neck and wrist bands and the bow upon the cap.

The cap, like the tunic, the sleeves and the wide flat collar, is of chiffon, hand-embroidered in tints of brown, picked out with gold threads.

The Brown Bottle protects Schlitz purity from the Brewery to your glass

See that crown or cork is branded "Schlitz."

Schlitz is brewed in the dark—stored for months in glass lined steel enameled tanks—bottled in darkened rooms where even the window shades are drawn to exclude the light—then sent to you in brown bottles.

Without all of these precautions, no beer can be healthful, and who knowingly would drink beer that was not.

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives protection against light.

We have adopted every idea, every invention that could aid to this end. Today, more than half the cost of our brewing is spent to make and keep Schlitz beer pure.

If you knew what we know about beer, you would ask for "Schlitz—Schlitz in Brown Bottles."
